A Member may appoint a proxy to act at a particular general meeting or make a standing appointment and may revoke any appointment. A proxy must be a Member.

10.5 More than one current proxy appointments

An appointment of proxy by a Member is revoked (or, in the case of a standing appointment, suspended for that particular meeting) if the Company receives a further appointment of proxy from that Member which would result in there being more than one proxy of that Member entitled to act at a meeting. - (b) Subject to rules 11.3 and 11.4, if a poll is held on a resolution, votes cast by direct vote by a Member entitled to vote on the resolution are taken to have been cast on the poll as if the Member had cast the votes on the poll at the meeting, and the votes of the Member are to be counted accordingly.
- (c) A direct vote received by the Company on a resolution is taken to be a direct vote on that resolution as amended (where permitted by law), if the chairperson of the meeting decides this is appropriate.
- (d) Receipt of a direct vote from a Member has the effect of revoking (or, in the case of a standing appointment, suspending) the appointment of a proxy or attorney or Representative made by the Member under an instrument received by the Company before the direct vote was received, to the extent of the proceedings in relation to which the direct vote was cast.

11.3 Withdrawal of direct vote

- (a) A direct vote received by the Company:
